

KEY EXPERT – COMBATING CORRUPTION AND ORGANISED CRIME IN MOLDOVA

Background

The action, financed by the European Commission, aims at providing support for the construction of effective, efficient, independent, and accountable justice, prosecution and investigation system, capable of combatting and preventing corruption, organised and financial crime (including stand-alone money laundering).

Within an European Consortium selected to execute the action, CIVIPOL is responsible for the implementation of the component designed to Bolster capacities of Law enforcement and prosecution bodies to initiate and conduct quality and coordinated investigations on corruption, organised and financial crime (including stand-alone money laundering).

More specifically, CIVIPOL' intervention will focus on:

- enhancing investigative techniques and capacities of law enforcement agencies involved in anti-corruption, organised crime and financial crime cases;
- improving operational cooperation and information sharing between Law enforcement, prosecution and intelligence services.

As part of an international team enrolled to implement the action, a key expert will be deployed in April 2026 by CIVIPOL to reinforce investigation and coordination capacities on anti-corruption and financial crime investigations. He/She will be supported by a team of short-term technical experts.
